

The Australian Beacon

The Australian Beacon, P.O. Box 642, Nanango, Q 4615, (07) 4163 2160 Email: raysmyth@burcom.com.au

For Advertising content contact: nannews@burcom.com.au

YOUNG FAMILY TAKE ON THE BANKS

“Are Your Freedom and Rights Important Enough to Save?”

Did you know you are losing your freedom and your rights through the actions of unscrupulous and corrupt banksters, politicians and the injustice system?”

So states a flier produced by the Christian Family of Bowral, NSW, which can be read on the website: www.loveforlife.com.au

The young family are fighting to retain their home from the depreda-

Inverell Forum 2007

An unsurpassed group of speakers
The most thought provoking weekend on the Australian calendar

Pauline Hanson

Why Pauline feels it necessary for her to re-enter the field of politics at this time. A field she does not like, but one she will enter because she cannot find a truly patriotic voice

Traditional Country Band Saturday Night

Dave Von Kleist

American entertainer and talk show host, host of the DVD 'In Plane Site.' Dave has a story to tell about the terrible events of 9/11

Professor Bob Carter

Global Warming - Cool Science or Hot Air?
What every citizen should know about climate change

Many other speakers of note

March 16 to 19

Mark your calendar

Email: rnb@northnet.com.au

Inverell Forum Inc., Phone: (02) 6723 2351
P.O. Box 987, Fax: (02) 6723 2364
Inverell, NSW 2360

tions of a private bank. They took the matter to Court and found out that the courts and all local, state and federal governments are registered as private corporations. They claim the whole justice system is corrupt and has been lost to the Australian people.

Not surprisingly, they did not do well, but they didn't give up. They are initiating a 'Walk For Freedom' campaign and want freedom loving Australians to join them. Their first Freedom Walk is Easter Saturday 12 noon 2007. Contact them at Email: action@loveforlife.com.au or: PO Box 1320 Bowral 2576 NSW

Des Morrison has served extensively in all arms of the services starting as a boy in the Australian Navy during World War II and calls on his enormous experience to deliver an indictment of modern society and a call for moral rearmament.

This DVD has already caused controversy in police and military circles and should be viewed by all patriots and those of the younger generation.

P.O. Box 642, Nanango, 4615
$20 Post paid.